

Transliteration of the Channeling "Breakup" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on April 29, 2021

"Be blessed, you beloved children of light.

You beloved children of light. Before we get to our actual topic, which today will be about the topic of the breaking forth, we would like to say a little bit about the current well-being or the current events on the energetic level in relation to the reconstruction of your body, your physical structures.

Beloved children in the light. You will still have difficulty hearing or seeing at times. Once again we point out, in order to protect our channel, that these statements do not replace the diagnosis of a doctor or practitioner, nor their treatment. But the energetic currents that are currently affecting your body, especially in the area of the awakening process of the planet or the re-liberation of planet Earth, as well as beyond that, the effects that are triggered by the universal energy and the Schumann frequencies just now means that you have an extremely high need for sleep. This extremely high need for sleep therefore refers to the fact that your bodies need the rest and above all the exchange on the spiritual level with your spiritual families, with your spiritual leaders ultimately. It is about letting go of old energies, it is about being able to absorb new energies, it is about stepping out of the 3D world more and more. And of course this also means to leave the 3D problems more and more behind you. This exchange happens either when you meditate, when you contemplate or of course when you sleep. So always in the theta or delta wave area of your brain. For this it is still helpful and useful to use meditation, but beyond that also the energy structure of the forest.

Beloved children in the light, the forest not only gives off oxygen, but it is able to transmit the pulse of life, the life energies. The diversity of the forest, and the energy structures of the forest, especially of old-growth forests, can be very helpful. We would like to invite you to spend a day in the forest every now and then. Without music, without entertainment, but maybe even once in silence. To walk once through the forest and to act as if you had never seen it before, as if you were observing it anew, discovering it anew.

And you will suddenly notice how you can already sense the fourth dimension or even see the fourth dimension and sense the fifth dimension. This is especially important in places of power, which are usually in forests or near forests, and can be very very helpful. As before, any bone structures, of course, because everything that is very dense and vibrates very densely like just the bone density or the bone structures, are currently exposed to a very different stress than before, due to the ascension process.

Beloved children, we do not want to invite you to patience, but we want to invite you today to the departure. To the breaking forth into the new time, to the breaking forth into change, to the breaking forth into the creation of the New Golden Age. We are very often asked, "How much longer?" Any of you who have children know how interesting it is for parents when a child sits in the back seat and asks during a drive, "How much longer?" Only unlike the children in the back seat are you able to speed it up or slow it down.

Beloved children in light, the entire universe is waiting for humanity. We are ready. Are you? It is about accepting and living the power and the force within you. It is about no longer being afraid of any supposed reprisals, but empowering yourself to the point that you clearly go your own way. Every mother knows it when she half-heartedly gives a "no" to her child, for example, because the child is just playing so nicely, but the mother is perhaps afraid that the child will get dirty when perhaps the grandmother comes to visit later. The good old days... Half-hearted means, actually you would like to let the child play, because he likes to play so much and so nicely just at the moment, but on the other hand for the sake of order. This is 3D thinking, 3D energy. And the child will immediately feel this half-heartedness and also take advantage of it. It will not respond to it. It has far too much connection, just like the animals. A half-hearted request will never lead to a positive result. On the contrary, it will lead to discussions or simply not implement it. That means, if you say "No!" to something, say no with your whole being. If you say "Yes!", say yes with your whole being.

Of course, we do know which supposed reprisals might be waiting for you or not. If someone in front of you says a very clear "No!" and you feel that this person or this human being stands behind it with his whole being, you will simply accept it, without bad conscience or without bad thoughts, why this person says no now, you will simply respect it.

This is the case for every human being, for every souled being. But also the unsouled entities have to give way when you say "No!". When you give the "Stop!", when you clearly consciously decide for the Divine Source of Love, of Omnipotence, of All-Oneness, when you call upon the Divine Spark within you.

Beloved children in the Light, if you could only sense what power you could channel through you, channel through your Divine Spark into you and into the world, you would be immediately ready to awaken. Many people in the present time are still convinced that they would like to return to what once was. Accepting that this time is the past is the first step in waking up. But you, on the contrary, cannot just sit and wait for the new world to awaken for you or in front of you, because you are the creators of the new world. You will create the new world. And here it is of great importance which energies or rather which things you want to continue to support with energies and which not. Who of you can imagine the new world? Or who of you is in the daily scramble to see if the other, the other person is maybe a bit dumber or just hasn't woken up yet or whatever.

You are so fast in judging and therefore of course very fast in splitting. But to accept the other person as he is, no matter what opinion he has - the moment you feel that the other person is a soulful entity, you can interact on a soul level. And when you do this, if your vibration is high enough, you will be able to pull the other person up to your vibrational level. Otherwise, the other person will succeed in pulling you down to their low vibrational level. The decision is yours at any time, every second of the day.

Beloved children in the light, the awakening begins now!

What is important for you, for each of you, is to deal with the truths. And we are not talking about one truth or another, but the truth that is with God. Each one of you is able to access this truth, to access, to recognize this truth.

This does not happen on the head level, but exclusively on the being, soul level. This is the resonance that you find in your chest, not in your heads. Sitting down and saying "I don't want to hear about this, I can't take this, I don't even want to know what exactly went on" is not helpful. This is the equivalent of a toddler covering his eyes and ears in hopes of not being seen and in hopes of not having to see.

In order to be able to make a change, a complete upheaval, a departure, it is essential that the souls on earth who need or want to ascend into the next dimensions actually deal with these things. This means to be grown up. This means being awakened. It does not mean that you should deal with every negativity, but you should know what is actually true. What ails the world the most right now is dangerous half-knowledge. People think they know that they can believe the normal news agencies. People think they know that what is being said is true. People believe they know, but they do not believe the knowledge, the knowing God. Decide what you want to believe, decide for yourself what actually feels true to you. This is the closest you will come to the truth of God.

Beloved children, much, much more is happening than what you believe and much more has happened than what you can imagine. But nevertheless, many more people who are awake, who are not too subtle or not too afraid to know the truth, will accept the truth.

If you bring yourself, for example, through meditation, spending a lot of time in nature and the forest, to a level, to an energy level where you can just accept these truths, not find them good, not find them bad, just simply accept the acceptance of the darkness rule of the last centuries, of what has happened.

Often the question is also asked of us, "Why could God allow this to happen?" God gave every soul free will. And the darkness, the dark forces, have told you many things over and over again. Even now, the regulations that are imposed on you are so crazy and so full of nonsense, but the supposedly good child follows these regulations.

Many things were shown to you, you were told, the information was always available. You just lost the feeling of what is right or what is wrong. This does not mean that this is in any way a reproach from our side, because we know exactly that you often had no strength or no time for other things to deal with certain issues. But, if everyone is honest for themselves today, consider how much time you have spent on supposed gimmicks in the 2D or 3D worlds, or on the desire for even more enhancement items that would valorize, and how little time you have spent on putting and accepting your inner self in its own worth and perhaps enhancing it.

Beloved Children of Light, this is only to explain it for you. It does not mean that we are evaluating or judging this in any way.

Why is it not faster? A seed that you put into the earth takes a certain amount of time to mature. Here it is not helpful to pull out the seedling every three days to see how far the roots are. It needs a certain amount of time. A child needs certain phases to find the strength within himself, so to speak, to break away from the helping hand of the parents at some point in adulthood. And so it is with the awakening into the new dimensions.

Beloved children in the light, the time of sitting in a supposedly protective bubble, in a supposedly perfect world, is currently over. Now it is a matter of breaking open the adventure of what is outside this supposed false security, or rather in this false security that has been all along, and discovering the new dimensions without judging or evaluating others. Also, to accept the free will of the souls who do not choose to go this way. But whatever you do or can do to speed up this process, you should do by reaching out to others, gently introducing others to the truth, being there for those who are waking up, to catch them or just to explain.

Sometimes it is simply enough to energetically give light into the universe, into the earth, into the collective consciousness of humanity to accelerate this process. But this requires your time.

And by this we mean each and every one of you!

Beloved children, nothing can stop what is coming. The light has won. The time of darkness is coming to an end. Every anger, every fear, every rage, every envy, every resentment, every division, every resentment fuels the darkness and gives it some more food. Of course, we know that it is almost impossible to be without these emotions when you see the injustice, especially what is done to the smallest ones. But connecting, saying "No!", saying "Stop!", finding other ways, is part of awakening. It is part of breaking free. It is part of changing the world. It is part of the ascension ultimately to 5D. But remember, it's not just flipping a lever and you're there, but this upheaval, this phase of upheaval is not going to be done in a day or two. This is a transformation that will take years. That doesn't mean you have to wait years now, otherwise we wouldn't have called this announcement "awakening". It starts now! And you will see more and more every day that it is breaking open. And no matter what supposed abominations are still medially transmitted to you, what bad things happen, what misfortunes have happened or whatever happens, be open, feel into yourself - is it true? Know the truth of God. You can ask us. You can call the Divine Source itself and ask. You will feel it and you will always get an answer as long as you are willing to have your hand on the phone or pick up the phone, so to speak. This can only happen when your mind is free of unnecessary thought structures and your hearts are open.

Beloved child in the light, you are needed. You will create a new future because you have the power to do so. The power to create a future that will bring paradise on earth. It is important that you clearly decide what your future should look like. In which communities you want to live. In which learning communities you want to exist, in which togetherness. The time of "better than, more beautiful than" or whatever are over. You may now decide, from the entire buffet of the universe, what you want to live.

You know what you don't want and most of the time you feed these thought structures or these things with the permanent repetition or with the permanent attention and therefore with the permanent energy that you give to these things that you supposedly don't want. And as the energy follows the attention, you will make these things bigger. But you already know about that.

Now it's about choosing for yourself what you want. There are no limits. Imagine every city being self-sufficient, planting itself instead of flowers, plants or anything else, maybe planting food products on the free areas. Imagine having the time to plant beds with your loved ones, with your children. Imagine how you enjoy just being. Having a little chat with your neighbors, being in exchange. Imagine what it's like to reach out and help someone else up. What joy it brings the other person and what joy it brings you. Imagine that there are communities where young and old live together and learn and enjoy from each other. Imagine or imagine that not only to survive to some extent you have to work all day like this to be able to pay anything at all, but create for yourself, for you personally, a world of abundance. Because the world is full of abundance.

When the darkness that has exploited you, that has used you as an energy supplier, all your life, lets go of you, you must be ready to use this freedom for yourself. You get to decide what your personal world looks like. And this decision, which each individual soul makes, will flourish in the conglomerate of mankind to a rapid upheaval and departure.

Do not be afraid. The awakening is here! It begins now.

Beloved child. You are the one for whom you and we have been waiting for a very, very long time. Feel the joy within you. The joy in which the whole universe vibrates when these steps are now taken by you. If you now take our hand and we can help you to reach the next level, feel the love, feel this firework of love and joy, which will finally break open in every soul when the shackles of darkness are released.

Do not be afraid! The darkness cannot harm you, because also it must respect the free will. As long as you consciously say "No!" and decide again and again to love, joy, gratitude and happiness, the darkness must obey.

Beloved child, you are so infinitely powerful, and with each day you become more and more so. Every cell of your body has already received this wake-up call. Every cell of your entire being is already vibrating in new structures, and new ones are being added every day. The time of awakening begins now!

Beloved child, you are infinitely loved. You are infinitely protected. You are able to discover the wisdom of the universe within you and also to live it. You are ready to create. You are ready to let the Divine Spark work in you or through you. You are ready to create. This is the desire of the Father, the Divine Omnipotence for each of His children. Do not be afraid! No matter what news comes next time, you are safe. Be sure, you are infinitely loved, you are never alone and you are ready. Sometimes you have to jump to let go of the supposed low vibrating fears.

Beloved child, truly we tell you, in the light of this time, it is possible to create miracle upon miracle. It is truly the time to celebrate new beginnings now. It is the time to uncover. It is the time to speak truth. It is the time to give birth to the light within you and carry it into the world.

We bless you in the light of Divine Omnipotence now and all the time, and so be it.
