

Transliteration of the Channeling "Dehumanization" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on February 27, 2021

"Blessings to you, beloved children of light. We are the energy which you name Chamuel.

Beloved Children. Our topic today, which we would like to deal with, which we would like to talk to you about, is the topic of dehumanization. Dehumanization on all levels.

Beloved children in the light. It is still the case that your body is very much transforming. Please keep in mind that the Earth is not yet completely free, but the first pulsations, the first impulses or the first pulses are slowly coming more and more into effect. This means that both the resonance through the Schumann frequency is getting stronger, but this does not only refer to what is coming from the cosmic realm, so to speak, but slowly the Schumann frequency is starting to interact more strongly with the pulsation of life for the simple reason that the earth is becoming more and more liberated. This, of course, results in great things for you, great changes within your physical structure. This means that ultimately you should take much more time to seek out nature or do things that are helpful within the movement to align the body. Movement is of great importance right now so that ultimately everything vibrates in harmony, preferably of course movement in nature.

Beloved children in the light. The difficulties that you are facing, other than head problems and problems with the bone structure or with the joints, with the body, in the end it is actually everything, because it is a wake-up call to the cells, to each of your own programming, to each and every cell in your body. This is very comprehensive, and it is really the call or really the conversion to galactic man, galactic in terms of adapting to what you actually are: creatures of Divine Source.

Beloved children in the Light. Patience is something you still need. This transformation is just beginning, the planet is not yet free. Mother Earth is still partly in captivity to darkness. But this is changing more and more every hour.

Beloved children in the light. You can do very much to still bring about the change. The first thing is to allow yourselves to continue to step out of the struggle. Try to break free from vibrating in anger, fear and rage, but focus more now with each day, with each breath, on beginning to ultimately bring the light and love into the planet. This will be easier if you go into the meta-level and look at the world a little from the soul perspective, so to speak. For this, of course, it is necessary that you drastically strengthen the connection to your own soul.

Beloved children in the light. You are so much more than you can ever imagine. We would like to speak today on the subject of dehumanization. Dehumanization - what does it mean? Dehumanization means to change God's creature, human being, in any form. To no longer perceive him as human. It is so easy for you, when you are not facing a human being, to evaluate or judge him negatively. Look at some of the ratings or remarks that people give to other people on the Internet. The more you use the Internet, the more you go to a level that is not really human. The Internet is only used by the mind, by the mind carousel, and it is partly through the programming that is on the Internet that actually affects your brain waves or your free will as well.

Beloved children, begin to see, even when you are on the Internet, the individual who may be behind a comment. Also this is not always given of course. Here, too, much has already been dehumanized and the computers have taken over in many areas through algorithms to use any comments or the so much vaunted hate speech. Therefore it is even more important that you start to react as humans. That you get out of this complaining, this doesn't work, that doesn't work, that one doesn't do it well enough, the other one is stupid, any form of judgment. You complain about everything, but in part you may not have the courage to put yourselves out there.

Beloved children. Stop fighting against each other. The more angry the ignorant become with the knowledgeable or vice versa, the greater the division in society. Know that the division in society is very much desired. The division in society is very much necessary to feed the darkness. But if you want to stop feeding the darkness, then stop being divided.

What the darkness or the powerful, supposedly powerful, dark energy, dark power behind the darkness, so to speak, wants to achieve is to dehumanize human beings. Why is it necessary? Why does this power need the dehumanization of people? No human being is allowed to possess another human being. No demon may possess another human being without his permission. Without the permission, given by the free will of a human being, the human being, through ignorance, is partially ready to sell himself to the darkness, to what you call Satan or Lucifer.

Beloved children in the light. The darkness would violate the cosmic laws to such an extent that immediate stop must be put, and this by the Divine Source itself. But by allowing yourselves to be partially dehumanized and choosing to follow the darkness, consciously or unconsciously, this transformation process continues to drag on.

What is dehumanization? Through what does dehumanization happen? The first dehumanization has already started by not being able to recognize your faces, by not interacting, by separating more and more from each other. For this it is especially necessary, if you do not want to or cannot rebel against it, that you at least speak through your eyes and promote the soul level, the communication on the soul level.

Beloved children in the light. Dehumanization goes one step further. What happens when a company crosses two seeds and gets a patent on the new seed? You are careful not to ingest genetically engineered foods because ultimately Divine Source has blessed each seed with the breath of life. When anything is tampered with, that breath is taken out. Anything that is altered, mechanically or with corruption, takes away the origin of being. Everything lives on this planet, everything pulsates, everything has an effect, everything ultimately has some form of divinity in it, at least everything that was created by God and that is ensouled by God. Of course, there are inanimate entities. These inanimate entities are what you call demonic in the classical case. These inanimate entities continue to try to get power over you, control. To use you only as energy hosts or better said as energy suppliers and also beyond that as food.

Beloved children in the light. You take care or try to take care not to eat genetically manipulated food.

Whoever manipulates the gene has the patent on it, so to speak. What happens when you eat food or, even worse, take medicines that are genetically manipulated? That carry the gene of other entities into you. Then who do you belong to?

Beloved children, there are so many beings who are already so dehumanized, who, alas God, mostly sit in the governments, who no longer have any empathy, who no longer have any power or any strength or any faith in any direction, who no longer have any heart, who are no longer truly ensouled. These entities are trying to hijack you. In the truest sense of the word. And it is a matter for you to accept that it is currently the final battle in which you find yourselves. The final battle of light and darkness. There is indeed a battle going on here. As we have mentioned many times, the darkness has already lost. The light has prevailed. But these entities that still exist in the world, whether in governments, whether underground, whether in the demonic realm, these unsouled entities are trying to take as many of you with them as they can. Pay attention to what you are feeding yourselves. Pay attention to whom you consciously or unconsciously give the power to. Try to feel the power and strength within yourself and oppose this power and strength, namely your inner light, to the darkness. To say no and mean it does not mean that you are not good enough, that you are not benevolent enough, that you are not loving enough. It means ultimately to protect you and your deepest essence, the soul, so that you are not dehumanized and fed as a thing of darkness.

Beloved children. Everyone is needed here. Everyone who makes an angry comment just because someone has a different opinion, or with one click destroys something that someone else created. Here is the beginning of dehumanization. But the further dehumanization is, not showing the faces anymore, is to take genetically modified food or also genetically modified drugs.

Beloved children in the light. When you do this, you enter into the possession of darkness with free will. This is your decision to make. What is worth standing up for? What is worth rebelling for in the end?

Beloved children in the light. The decision is yours. Every single one is asked to take himself out of this dehumanization mechanism.

Each individual is asked to confess what he is, namely the human being. The human being in connection with the Divine Source, because every animate being has the connection via the Higher Self to the Divine Source. The Divine Spark lies within each and every one of you.

Beloved children in the Light. What is worth living for? What would be worth dying for? You could supposedly lose life. Eternity never, unless you have consciously or unconsciously sold yourself to the darkness, since being conscious or unconscious is the decision of man himself. The Internet offers you all the information you could have, or that you could need. The Internet never forgets anything. If you sit down and start researching for yourself, you will find out what ultimately serves the darkness and what does not, if you want to understand it from the mind level. But stop chasing false prophets. Stop believing, believing in governments, believing in others who know what they are doing, believing that the neighbor may be better, that the other may be more intelligent, believing in the one who is more beautiful, the one who has supposedly made it further - faith is something between each individual soul and God, and that is where faith belongs. Whether you want to name the Divine Source "God" or "Goddess" or "Allah" or "Wakan Tanka" or "Primordial Source" or whatever you want to name it, or name HIM, much better said - that is where faith belongs. Stop believing in the supposed gods of the news. Stop believing in false gods. Now is that time to empower yourself, to step into your power, into your strength. Now is the time to decide to accept Eternal Life forever or to deny yourself to the Divinity that works within you.

Beloved children in the Light. Each of you has an intuition, has a conscience, has something that tells you whether something is true or not. Free yourselves from believing in human beings or even in supposed human beings, in entities that perhaps have only disguised themselves as human beings.

Beloved children. Free yourselves from illusion. When you hear something, when you experience something, test it through your feeling, whether it feels true to you. And if it feels true to you, then listen to your feeling and not to what you think you have learned, because that is also false belief.

Beloved children, there are always three truths. The truth of the other person, the truth of your own person, and the truth that lies with God. But the alienation caused by hostility is so great that it leads more and more to dehumanization. Being human means being God's creature, means connecting with each other and means turning to the Divine Source itself. Over and over again. The Divine Source is the source of love, and the more you turn to love, in the feeling of love, that which makes it warm and soft in the chest, not the wanting to have that you may have in your mind, the idea that it might be good here and not so good there with the other person.

Beloved children. Now is the time to decide. For the light or the darkness. And no being in this world that is ensouled is powerless. This is again a misconception. The moment you accept the power that works in you and through you and begin to live, the world will change within a very short time. Some people react very emotionally when confronted with another truth. Why is this so? Firstly, because they do not want to admit to themselves that they have believed in some lies for so many years, but also because demonic attachments, parasitic entities in the auric field naturally have to fight against the truth. The only thing that helps here is to stay in love, fighting back doesn't really get you anywhere. Fighting means permanently playing a tug of war. The time for fighting is over. The time for standing up for what is right, what is important, and to stand up whenever you see injustice and step in with all the power of your Divine Connection.

Beloved Child in Light. We believe in You. We know that Your power is infinite. We know that the beauty of Your radiance is without equal. We know that Your heart is full of love. We know that You ultimately want to save every person, every soul in this world. We know that You are love. We know that You are joyful. We know that the lightness of a child is within You. We know that the gratitude of just being can speak through You. We know about Your power. We know about your strength. We know that you are ultimately ready now, in this moment, to use this light to save the world. We bless You in the light of Divine Omnipotence, now and always, and so be it."
