

Transcription of the channeling "Mother Earth and the Ascension". of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on Nov. 28, 2020

"Blessed are you, beloved children of light. We are the energy that you call Chamuel.

Beloved children of light. We are well aware of the changes that are taking place within you, taking place within each one of you. Our theme today will be about Mother Earth and Ascension. Once again we will address each one of you personally.

Beloved child. The ascension from the third dimension into the fifth dimension is upon you. This ascension says that you are beginning to live the qualities of the heart. This means that the thought structures will be given less attention. For you now it is a matter of living what your soul is made of. That which constitutes your soul, is love. The highest vibration - paired with joy, gratitude and happiness. You will now ask yourself, "How should it be possible, in the present situation of the earth, of the planet itself, to feel the events, love, joy, gratitude and happiness?"

Beloved child. It is not that the circumstances have to be there to feel love, joy, gratitude and happiness, it is that love, joy, gratitude and happiness should or even must be felt in order to change the events on Earth. Beloved child. The rise of the earth is inevitable. Some souls will say goodbye because they do not want to participate in this ascension or better said, they want to develop themselves on another timeline. Everything is possible. Every soul has free will and can decide. But it would make sense if your soul decides to live free will.

You cannot live this free will through your thought structures. Your thought structures are sometimes compromised. The darkness tries to reach for you. But the moment you can feel the Divine Light of love, joy, gratitude and happiness within you, the darkness will automatically withdraw from you. The darkness is transformed in the light. It disappears. And the darkness does not want to disappear.

Beloved child. There are some stormy times ahead of you. Adventurous times. And your soul is like the laughter of a child. Your soul is looking forward to this experience. Your soul is looking forward to helping shape this experience. What is currently coming to you is that some cosmic events - like an eclipse of the sun that is still to come - planetary constellations that will allow the vibratory frequency of the planet to increase even further, even more drastically - the clarity that is created by truth - but also the pain that you will still have to go through when you will realize the truth behind everything. When the curtain is raised - when you realize what has actually happened and is still happening in part on this planet.

Beloved child. Furthermore, it is of great, great importance that you do not root yourself in the earth. That you do not become grounded in the planet itself. It is repeatedly pointed out that you should ground yourself. But, the earth itself is a consciousness of its own. The earth itself has its own topics, which have to be worked on at the moment, we will deal with that later. The earth with its own consciousness nourishes people to a certain extent, but it is not right to take root in it. This is the dark mirror, the dark reflection that has been taught to you over many, many decades. You would not want to ground yourself in your counterpart either. Grounding always takes place in the heart. Your auric field spreads out, circular 360 degrees around you. Like a huge ball that can reach into infinity if you feed it with high vibrational energy in general. Where is a circle strongest? In the middle. The connection - the root - the origin, where you come from, is in your center, the connection to the Divine Source itself.

The next month is very important, especially for the planet, for Mother Earth herself. You should know, beloved child, that the consciousness of Mother Earth has been enslaved for thousands of years. That the darkness has kept Mother Earth in a kind of captivity. The time to free herself completely is now, in this coming month.

This means that all lightworkers of this world are uniting and are already in the process of releasing the bonds, the dark fetters, that still hold the consciousness of Mother Earth partially in bondage. This progresses every day further.

Again and again people are asked to meditate at certain times. Again and again these invitations will reach you. But also here, be careful who you follow. At the moment when many people are invited to bring special energies into the world at a special time, the darkness knows this too. And in such times many people are attacked, or many humans are attacked.

It only takes a little frightening, and you are ready to fall out. Beloved child, what speaks against sending as much as possible, love, joy, gratitude, happiness into the world, worldwide, to everyone? Love will always be attracted by love. And considering that there are different time zones, isn't it more meaningful to help the planet itself, humanity on this planet itself, by sending love into the world as broadly and extensively as possible all day long than at special times? These special times of day are to some extent also for many people - and if you are honest, sometimes for you - the excuse to have been unconscious all day, to have done nothing, but then to sit down at a special time and do something.

Beloved child in the light. This new month is already beginning to carry the new energy of the new year. And this new year, a year of five, is the year of spirituality.

That means body - mind - soul, the human being, the three, with the fourth element, the angels - and now the Divine Power is added, in its complexity and with all its consciousness revealing, truth revealing power. And this coming month is already vibrating in this energy. It is the attunement to what is to come. And it is the month when very many indigenous peoples, together with the lightworkers of the world, will begin on a certain date to completely liberate Mother Earth.

This force that will be at work will have such a great impact on every cell in your body that what has already happened in the run-up to this time - the excessive fatigue - the bone pain - headaches, joint pain - eye problems - back problems - all these things will increase depending on how unconsciously you are or how much you resist welcoming the new time.

But when you are in the primal trust, in the primal trust that you come from Divine Source itself, that you can never be lost, because you will return to Divine Source itself - that you cannot lose yourself - that you are full of power, strength, joy, gratitude, happiness and love - that this is your origin, and when you begin, to live this on all levels - to celebrate the feeling of life itself as often as possible - to perceive the liveliness, the nature - to be grateful for every thing, for every person who is in your life - to feel what the animal world has in store for you - to see what miracles happen every day - to focus on what positive things have already happened - to realize that more and more people wake up, that more and more people say "No!" to the darkness, to the darkness that is imposed on you from the Elites - that you free yourself more and more - that you break open more and more the shell of limitation - that you empower yourself more and more, become more and more sovereign, stand up for yourself.

And that you are the one who, through every contact you have day after day, is giving exactly this form into the world, to the person who is now facing you or sitting opposite you. The cashier at the checkout, the neighbor who annoys you, that you can give this energy to all these people.

The darkness will disappear more and more from this planet. There will of course be a transitional period. Such things do not happen overnight. But it has been happening for a long time. The beginning was already in 1987, when a critical mass was reached, where humanity decided to go through this process in the original core. Where the earth was already able to develop its own power to a certain extent to ask for help.

Every single suffering voice of this planet and the voice of this planet itself was heard. In the beginning there were only single ones. But there are more every day.

You, who have decided to step out of this duality - bigger, better, faster, further, higher, more technical - out of this illusory world, which you called "life" in the past - the more you, your soul, will carry other people away. You do not need to discuss this. You must not reproach the others, or, should not reproach the others, if they are not yet ready. Some will not be ready at all, and this too is something that must be respected. But you soul, you shine, and this shining will help the other to recognize his own shining and to shine as well. And it is now, where before there were only isolated lights on the Planet, a wildfire that is going around the world - the unification of mankind.

Beloved child. For this new month we would like to call upon you especially to really follow your heart energy as much as possible. There is nothing more important right now. There is nothing more important right now than sending love into the world and into the planet - as often as possible.

You surely feel the call of your soul to this special adventure, which is unique in thousands of years. You surely feel the desire for departure in your soul. And it doesn't matter how long your head screams "No, it should be the way it was! No, it should stay the way it is! No, I do not want to change!" This is just your head.

Your soul cries out "I am here! I am here to shine! I am here to love! I am here to change! I am here - full of power - full of love - full of divinity! I am here to make the world a paradise! I am here to unhinge the world!"

Beloved children. It will be a busy month. An inspiring month. Sometimes an adventure vacation is always exhausting. We don't mean to belittle your suffering when we say this, but we would like to point it out or invite you to see this different perspective.

We would like to point out that your soul has a different perspective. Every single soul carries the knowledge and power of the entire universe within itself. So use the time that you have now, when the world is slowing down a little bit, to stay in nature as often as possible - to turn inwards as often as possible - to follow the energy of the heart as often as possible, even in a dispute, to put yourself a little inside the other person and to check what makes him express one thing or another, or what in you made him express one thing or another - to live the personal responsibility.

Beloved children in light. You are so much bigger, so much more precious than anything you can imagine. The whole universe looks upon you. All the energy of the Universe is working on you. All the power of Divine Love is permeating you. We are with you every second of your time. And the powerful energy of Mother Nature will free herself NOW. Especially from the 12th of this month on you should take as much time as possible to push the heart energy. There was a time, and this time is NOW, when the Divine Source Himself has decided, "It is enough. However, this could only happen because people asked for it, because there were souls who saw the darkness increase more and more or who recognized the darkness in the first place, who woke up, who decided, and at the request of these souls, the Divine Source intervenes! It has already begun, but it is now being strengthened.

Know that the light has already conquered. Because the Light can always exist without darkness, but the darkness never exists without the Light. Live your heart qualities and together let the world shine in the Divine Light and Face of Love. You are loved infinitely. And we bless you in the name and light of Divine Love for now - for all time - eternity. And so be it."
