

Transliteration of the Channeling "Values" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on October 28, 2021

" Blessings to you, beloved children of light. We are the energy which you call Chamuel.

Beloved children in the light. We would first like to return to the events of this time, before we go into more detail about our topic for today. This theme will be about the values of life.

The timing, especially this month - aside from the fact that it is All Hallow Even, the day when the dimensional gates are so thin that a great deal of darkness from other dimensions can enter - means that ultimately, however, it is also possible to bring in love from other dimensions. The alignment here remains with yourselves. It is still the case that your bodies are working at full capacity at the moment. The energies that are currently coming from the universe, from the universes, are ultimately what has sent your bodies into a wake-up call and all of your cells are being flooded with new energies - with new wake-up calls, so to speak.

Time is much more fast-moving. This means: Thought now - reality tomorrow. Fear of it now - reality an hour later. The bottom line is, check your thoughts. We can only urge you again and again, and we know that we are repeating ourselves here.

Beloved children in the light. But nevertheless it is necessary to have understood the basis and also to live the basis, the law of resonance: cause and effect, as it calls into the forest, so it resounds out.

Beloved children, we know very well that you simply want to have information about the further world events. About the result, when will it come, how will it come, why is it not already there?

Beloved children in the light. The world and humanity must be ready for it. There is already very, very much happening in the background and it is becoming more obvious every day. But, people cannot just be flipped a switch and the truth can be completely revealed. If you listen carefully, if you look carefully, you will feel and see that indeed many, many things are already changing.

Hints come in the most diverse media. The lie can no longer be capped in all levels, but mostly it does not fall on fertile ground.

Beloved children in the light. As we have mentioned in previous announcements, you have allowed yourselves to be captured by the supposed pleasures of the big technology platforms, be it any stream media, be it any entertainment media. You have cut yourselves off a bit from the values. If you hear long enough that something evil is happening here, and something evil is happening there, and something even more evil is happening there, it just becomes normal to you. Evil is not normal. God did not create evil. Ultimately, evil, or darkness, whatever you want to call it, is a force that has completely turned away from divinity, and thus the soul is ultimately non-existent, something artificially created, something created by corrupted beings. The darkness is not ensouled - and an eternal life can be accessible only to ensouled beings. Everything else can be made with technology or with manipulation or with dark energies, but it is not ensouled, so the darkness already contains death in itself. And the moment darkness disappears from this planet, truly we tell you, death disappears as well, at least as you know it.

Beloved children. Why is the subject of values so important to us? Because the values, after mankind lived many years ago, no longer exist. What are values? Respecting your neighbor, respecting yourself. Values are also the family, values are also to stand up for the weak, especially for the weakest in society. Values are not to want to see anyone suffer, to change something. Values are sincerity, honesty, straightforwardness and above all truthfulness and courage. Courage to say "no", courage to stand up for oneself, courage to defend the weak. It is much easier not to question anything, not to challenge anything. A person who is in touch with his soul and does not live only the head, realizes relatively quickly that something is wrong, or has realized relatively quickly last March that something is wrong here. But the anesthetizations that take place on the outside, through television and the big media in any form, the consumerism, the indifference, the fear of being different from the masses, the uniformity, the lockstep, all this has led to the fact that you have lost yourself a bit of the way. And therefore, we would like to invite you to live the values again

It is worth pointing out again that it is not simply a matter of flipping a switch and going from 3D to 5D. This is a process. And this process can only be accomplished if it falls on fertile ground. And this means the decision for each individual soul: does it want to go along with the ascension or not?

Beloved child in the light. You cannot permanently think evil of others, judge others or be full of anger and hatred towards others and then expect to be ready to vibrate in 5D. 5D begins in the heart, ascension begins in the heart. This means also having compassion for people who cannot get out of their own fear. That is why it is of such great importance that those who are awakened shine so brightly that they help to change, to transform the darkness in those who are asleep.

There is a reason that you are here at this time. There is a reason that you have chosen to live clarity. There is a reason that you have chosen to follow your soul and thus God and the love of omnipotence.

But nevertheless, it means that as soon as you participate in a form of division: The vaccinated from the unvaccinated, the intelligent from the supposedly stupid, the sexes among themselves. Judgment and evaluation is one of the greatest weapons of darkness. The other is better, worse, something. Judgment holds division. You can find something "not beautiful", you can find something "great", that is only a sensation, that is only a factual rewriting of what you actually perceive. But as soon as it is about something "being better" or "being worse than", then you are in this subject, that you raise yourself above others or humiliate yourself in front of others.

Beloved child, the ascension process is in full swing. The earth is becoming more awake, but it still needs to heal. You are becoming more awake, but you also need to heal more. Healing means being aware of your own powers. But it also means being aware of your own shadow sides, without judging them as "bad" or "better". Simply to take note of them, to understand them. It means to clearly say "no" to darkness. First of all, to one's own darkness. It means clearly saying "no" to what is happening on the outside. It means to find the courage to stop playing along with the idiocy of what is being done at the moment, for fear of some supposed limitations

Beloved children in the light. It is still the case that the followerism especially here in the German-speaking countries has taken on such blatant forms that it can ultimately only be explained by the fact that over many, many decades the cult of guilt has been entered further and further into the minds. And here you see the dilemma again. It is only in your heads. If you remember to live your innermost, if you remember to live your power, your love, your values, no longer resign yourself to injustice, no longer resign yourself to others imposing something on a free human being, no longer resign yourself to people's wishes not being carried out.

The first step is simply the acceptance of what is and the decision to no longer participate there. Start living again the values like dignity, like joy, like gratitude, like happiness, sharing that with others, helping others and above all standing up for yourself, for what you believe in, for what your values are. Do not underestimate the values that are ultimately found inside, which you have whitewashed with the external things. Valuable was who had the most expensive and valuable cell phone, who had the most expensive and valuable car, who was successful, more successful than others, "better than". To perceive yourself only when you are "better than". This has nothing to do with humanity. This is something that has been permanently entered by the darkness to make humanity turn against each other and fight each other. Ambition. Better than. Worse than. Ambition is something completely natural, which is not described by honor and avarice, an insane word, but determination. Every person who starts something wants to finish it. Every creator wants to create, and you are co-creators of the universe. You want to create, you want to experience new things, build new things, discover new things, bring new things into the world. But in doing so, you do not have to be stingy with your honor. The honor and the dignity of man are inviolable. Freedom, given by God, is absolutely inviolable.

Beloved children in the light. In the dark season it is very important to be light, but especially now in the month when the dimensional gates are extremely open. Withdraw a little. Try to pray a lot. Try to give a lot of light to the world and try to really leave the TV off for once.

Try not to see your series to excess in the supposed reality that is only a lie, but use this time to hold up the best so far, to hold up the values so far that the darkness cannot have another upsurge.

It is of extremely great importance, in this phase, where so much work is actually being done in the background, in the underground, to liberate people from the most evil that could ever be imagined, or from the greatest absence of love, the crimes against humanity that have been going on in this realm for many, many, many hundreds of years, the crimes against the smallest and the weakest, against children. Stand up! First of all, stand up inwardly. Free from fear. In the certainty of never falling lower than in God's hand. Be ready, be prepared. The truth comes every day a little more as light. And the moment will come when the veil is pulled away, when the truth comes to light very clearly. The revelations have already begun. He who has eyes, let him see. He who has ears, let him hear. And above all, he who is souled, feel that indeed the change is already there. The darkness has already lost. But the last shadows fight to the utmost for every soul. But to give up now, just before the revelation is completely visible on the outside, and just go with the flow, means in the end to decide against the ascension, means to be afraid of one's own power, might and strength or of the supposed inconvenience.

Beloved children in the light. Every soul is so extremely powerful and so infinitely loved. Every light that the soul lets out is celebrated. Remember your values, the values of your ancestors: Righteousness, probity, honor, decency, taking advantage of no one, making no one small. Remember to actually live the greatness of your soul!

Truly, we say to you: You are the most powerful instrument against darkness ever created. You are the power and the strength of the Divine Free Will. You are the power of Divine Love. You are Mother, Father, the Light of the Divine Creator, the Omnipotence that can work in you and that will work through you if you allow it. It is the time to stand up, it is the time to say "No". It is the time to go into your own power. It is the time to turn away from the darkness. It is the time to live your own power, strength, might in such a way that you become free from the intrusion of darkness in any form of media.

It is the moment to say "no" to the darkness and to say "yes" to the Almighty Father, the Divine Omnipotence of Love. It is the time to discover the power and strength within oneself and to live it.

No human being who is not ready to give his life for the most innocent, the children, will have the courage and strength to exist in 5D. As long as you are not ready to settle the daily disputes and accept your own strength, you do not want to go this way.

Beloved child in the light. You are so comprehensively beautiful. You are so comprehensively forceful. You are so comprehensively powerful. And you are so full of love. And this love wants to and is allowed to break through now. That means to act out of the heart, out of the power. And to live the values of the world. In the end, it is the values of the Divine Omnipotence. It is the power and the strength of the Almighty All-encompassing Love of Light, of gratitude, of the joy of pure being.

You are never alone. You are infinitely loved and protected. Place your worries in the hands of God and be ready for the answer, with an open heart.

We bless you in the light of Omnipotence, in the light of All-encompassing Love, the union of all the universes and in the unity of Love.

Live! Begin Now!

Be blessed! In love! And so be it!"
