

Transliteration of the Channeling "AI" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on May 28, 2023

"Be blessed, you beloved children in light. We are the energy you call Chamuel.

Beloved children in the light.

We would like to talk a little bit about the current events before we move on to our main topic, "Artificial Intelligence", because of the many inquiries about it.

Beloved children in the light. Slowly, time is progressing by revealing certain things. This will pick up even more speed. As within, so without, so within you at the moment things are being uncovered that were hidden. Sometimes you will feel like you don't really know yourself anymore. Sometimes you will feel like you don't know your body anymore. Nothing works as it should, there is a twinge here, a pinch there, but that is also part of the process.

Right now is a time to expose all that is false, mendacious or dark, whether on the outside or even on the inside. Eventually things will come out that you don't always like, but that still need to be cleared up, especially on the physical structure. Pay close attention to yourselves, pay attention to your innermost needs, go into communication with each other, be authentic and real. The lie, the time of darkening will become lighter with each day. It will be illuminated more every day and it will come out more every day.

The next year, which is under the sign of the eight - the eight, the might, but also the money, but also the sign of infinity, the curved shape of the eight shows that what is down will be brought up and what is supposed to be up will be brought down. You are slowly already beginning to vibrate in this energy.

The point for you now is to get to know yourself on all levels of your being. And it is about being authentic and still - and this is the most important thing of all: to go into self-empowerment, into your own power. Even people who are aware, who are awakened, so to speak, about how the world works, tend at the moment to sweep their own things under the rug.

To look without evaluating or judging, without judging yourself as bad or evil or whatever, but simply to take note of the fact that perhaps things are not going quite so smoothly, and that perhaps things could be done differently, or perhaps the inner child should be embraced once again here, means that you are waking up and going into your own power, into self-empowerment.

One of your sages once said: "Freedom does not mean that you can do what you want. Freedom means you don't have to do what you don't want to do." And this ultimately is the key to many things. It means becoming more and more free from what is said or done on the outside. To use your own decisiveness, the word "No!" and also to feel when something is asked of you that you definitely don't want, this is the power and this is the strength.

As you have noticed, the earth goes every day a little bit more into its power, into the healing energy. You see how nature is blossoming more and more and can transform many things with a power, with a newfound power that is still being sprayed by the darkness. Nevertheless, it is important to continue to let light and love flow into the earth, so that ultimately the healing process for all living beings - the earth, the people, the animals, the beings on it, comes to bear more and more. The healing process is the most important thing at the moment. And this also means for many of you that you should decelerate. Decelerate in the form of not wanting to do everything a thousand percent, but also to be able to leave things alone. That means, finally, to redefine your own power and your own strength.

If a year ago or five years ago you were able to do twenty things at once or keep rushing from one appointment to the next, it makes absolutely no sense to do that now. It makes sense to pause. To maintain the contact with the soul more strongly or better said, to re-establish it in the first place. Here we mention again the short meditation, "the shortest meditation in the world", as our channel has named it, which you should incorporate into your daily routine as often as possible.

Beloved children in the light. Growth, every child knows, can be painful at times. But if you try to grow and constantly berate those who cannot grow, for whatever reason, or constantly flood you with negative information, you will not get anywhere.

Growth means giving the other the opportunity to grow as well, at his speed. And it simply means to focus more on yourself at the moment and on your neighbors, your families, your friends and to take a clear stand here as well. It doesn't mean living strife, but it means living truthfulness. If you have a difficulty or a problem with someone, to have the courage to address it, to clarify, to clean up. To bring up what is hidden, that is part of the process.

Beloved Children in the Light. As we said at the beginning, we would like to go into the subject of artificial intelligence because of the many questions. For this we have to go back a little bit, or rather go back to something we explained before, and that is the subject of egregors or archons.

Beloved Children. Egregors, archons are things that are not ensouled, although the difference between an egregor - or as we also call it - the "interpersonal energy bubble" and an archont must also be explained in more detail. Every relationship, every friendship develops something like an egregor, an interpersonal energy field. Into this energy field come the thoughts, the energies that have to do with this person, from both sides. Seen in larger scales, we speak here of "collective consciousness". Now it is so that if one nourishes this energy field permanently negatively and the other one nourishes it permanently positively, it can switch over, so to speak, that it no longer has a neutral function, but simply has a supposedly negative one. And this supposed negative can affect the supposed positive or vice versa. The more you clarify, the more you communicate, be it in thoughts, be it in words - words are of course preferable to thoughts - the energy field changes. This energy field can be helpful between mother and child. The mother senses how her child is doing and vice versa. Or between lovers. But this energy field can also be very destructive if one is the perpetrator and the other is the victim. The important thing here is to make sure that a certain amount of energy nurturing is allowed to take place here as well. The more positively you tune into this energy field, the more positive energies are put into it, just like with the collective consciousness: You decide whether you dock into the fearful, destructive, low-vibrating fields or into the light, easy, loving ones of the upper layers.

And depending on your mood, you also draw energy from it. This means that you cannot stop being energetic and you will always create some form of energy field or egregor, as it was or is called in the ancient times. The only important thing is to know that you are the creator beings and only in the carelessness it is possible that an egregor, so to speak, can influence the human being and it should be the other way around.

The archons, what you call archons, are demonic - demonic structures. They are partially created, they are partially multidimensional, they are partially consciously summoned from other dimensions, and there are also many archons currently free-floating, which have clung to deceased and are currently desperate for new hosts, so to speak.

Beloved children. What does this have to do with artificial intelligence? We wanted to explain to you how the base works and that everything and every person who works on anything creates a certain energy field. That's how it is with Artificial Intelligence, of course. Energy fields are created, the form of the egregors of the programmers who are involved in it. When enough energy is gathered, this can also be taken over by a demon. This means that Artificial Intelligence can also be demonically controlled or occupied.

This is very important to know: that certain structures, programs, created by humans, always have the tendency, because of the creative power, to create an attenuated form of aliveness, inanimate but existing. This is the great danger with Artificial Intelligence. Especially in the area that humanity is also invited even more to lie and cheat. Young people who start to have their homework done or students who have whole term papers or whole texts written for them. This is fraud. And it makes humanity to search even less in itself, to outsource to the outside, the power for its own thinking, the power for the exchange with its own soul, the intuition. To tap the knowledge of the whole humanity, of the whole universe, by developing something by oneself or just letting it be done by something artificial, which is also partly demonic.

Mankind is currently suffering from the fact that many children have been brought up not to think for themselves. Not to try things out for themselves for fear that something negative might happen. This is problematic. Because these children are currently in your leadership ranks. Inflated with artificial hubris, without basis, without knowledge, without mind and partly without heart. Because if a child is only ensnared, has no responsibility, cannot really develop and is always only praised, automatically becomes narcissistic.

Narcissism means that the person believes he is the best there is. Narcissism is always accompanied by hubris. And this arrogance without expertise, this is something that was really created because children were no longer treated like humans, but like little things that must not break. They often lack the experience and these people are now adults and don't have the strength and the power to look at themselves, they haven't learned to do their homework independently in school or to think for themselves, it has been driven out of you, so to speak. Darkness has done a great job in this area. Nevertheless, an ensouled being always has the possibility to change this path, to turn inward, and thus to establish contact with the Divine Source Itself via the Higher Self, and to tap into the knowledge of the universe as well.

Beloved Children in Light. How great is the danger of Artificial Intelligence? Very great at present, especially because it is also being used to manipulate.

Is it dangerous for the farmer in the field or the forester in the forest? Absolutely not. Because he sees this just as something artificially made and this can never compete with the living, existing being in the environment, in the outside. And because especially, just also among the farmers still or among the ranchers, however you want to name it, the farmers, honor and decency is valid in certain measures. There is no cheating, there is no backstabbing, often a handshake is still a handshake. Honor and decency is something that the new time will automatically bring, because the moment you are limited or reduced to the essentials, you will automatically be allowed to deal more with the garden, with pure being, with nature. And nature also shows the natural laws. A natural law is also honor, decency, respect. Not to torture anything for fun. Not to harm others.

A farmer who loves his land will be able to ensure again and again that the land produces the right yields. Where it has been imposed by something artificial, the soils are poisoned. The farmer also knows this.

Beloved children in the light. For you it is a question now in the next time as said to revive honor, decency, respect before each other, to each other again. To recognize yourselves, to say "Stop!" and "No!", to empower yourselves in the truest sense of the word. And this self-empowerment happens automatically because nature will demand more and more from you and will provide you with more and more energy.

The earth is waking up. There are many volcanoes active right now. Of course, the darkness is still trying to intervene with geoengineering or with other things, but you as humanity have so much power. If three or four people were to join together to liberate the sky, you would also succeed. This is the knowledge of the power that has always been suppressed. It is what was finally done to the children with the indoctrination. And we don't even want to talk about the very worst, which we already talked about, today. Why are children so attractive to evil? Because it carries the purest creative force in itself. Hence the sentence "And if you become like little children, the kingdom of heaven is yours". The moment you return to this consciousness, to your pure being, you can change everything. In your life, in your environment. And you will have noticed with certainty that at the moment much more and much faster things can be manifested than a few months ago. Pay attention to what you think, it could come true. Pay attention to the conscious and unconscious orders, seek out nature. Release the feelings in nature. Go into the exchange with nature. Touch a tree once. Garden. Do whatever it takes to reconnect with the earth. The earth energizes. Even though we always point out that you should not anchor yourself in the earth, because one does not anchor oneself in another being, but the anchor or grounding actually takes place in the heart, in spite of everything, what is often meant by the word "grounding" is to be in one's body, to feel the earth with one's feet, and thereby automatically establish the connection between heaven and earth, as a mediator.

Beloved children in the light. You are such wonderful beings and created to work miracles. Now is the time to begin your own miracles. Within yourself, acting from your heart, full of joy, full of gratitude and full of reorientation towards creating the new, old world. The world as it was once meant to be.

It is not always important if the one is right or if he has more information than the other, it is about extracting the essential from the multitude of information. And it is about checking these supposed truths in your being for actual truth. Your intuition can tell you exactly what is true and what is not true.

The timelines are merging together. Each one creates others for itself. It is infinitely active and yet so essentially pulling together. You will see that much is changing now. The chaff is separating more and more from the wheat and that the essence of the actual being wants to drift more and more upwards, if you allow it. The head turns it off because the head can be manipulated via the energy fields, via the archons, via the egregors, via film, radio and television. The soul is never manipulable because it carries truthfulness within itself.

You are the powerful being.

You are a beloved expression of the Divine Source.

You carry the spark of the Creator Itself within You.

You are so powerful, you are so magnificent, and you are so full of love, if you let yourself be.

It is now a matter of doing all that is necessary to no longer suppress your own growth.

Know that you are loved!

Know that you are inspired!

And know that it is your God-given birthright to live in health, love and abundance.

We bless you in the light of Divine Omnipotence, in the radiance of the entire Universe, in HIS deepest love, Now and for all time and so be it!"

(Archangel Chamuel)
