

Transliteration of the Channeling "Community" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on July 28, 2022

" Be blessed, you beloved children of light. We are the energy you call Chamuel.

Beloved children in the light. Today again we would like to give you a message that will revolve around the theme of community. Before we go into it in more detail, we would first like to refer a little to the current events.

Beloved children in light. It is truly a turbulent time. It is a high and a low. For many of you, the pressures on the outside are getting stronger and stronger, the thought structures as to whether you can handle all that is coming your way, but also the energies that are still shifting, that are still affecting you - still, of course, the energy frequency will continue to be raised here on Earth, and beyond that, it is the case that Earth is still not completely free. You are now just about - to give you a number, but that is also relative - at 93%. It fluctuates sometimes, up to two points a day down and up again due to the fact that depending on what news comes, the panic becomes greater, the fear becomes greater, the despair becomes greater.

Beloved children in the light. Against all these things helps the action, to do something, the implementation. Not worrying about "what then?". To be prepared, yes. But not to live in permanent fear and worry of what will happen.

Beloved children in the light. As before, the transformational processes in the body are sometimes accompanied by great fluctuations in temperature. You may be freezing on days when it is actually very warm, or sweating on days when it is actually not warm - and this has nothing to do with climate change (that makes us smile) - this has everything to do with the fact that the energy levels in your bodies are constantly changing because of the energy that is put into them. Depending on the issues you have, the whole body is still in process. This will not change for the time being. Any symptom that you feel right now in terms of bone density or bone strength or bones in general is natural because the bones are the most dense, the least high vibrational, the most solid.

Therefore, joint problems in any area, headaches - many of you also have problems with the cervical spine - but here the hint is said: less media, more nature, less keeping the head bent, walking upright, walking straight would be very helpful here.

Beloved children. We would like to speak to you today on the subject of community. Community is the connection of humanity with each other. Some call it the human family, some just call it one's own family, but we are talking about the community. Of the community of the neighborhood, of the community of friendships, of the communities of union among themselves.

In English, community means "community", in the end, the coming of unity, of "unity", of union. Of course, this does not mean on the physical level, it means on the spiritual, mental level. You have been directly, and transformed, by the dark Ones who have controlled, or are still partially controlling, all the time here - although here, too, let it be noted that one or another great entity has been removed by the intervention of Divine Omnipotence. Nevertheless, it is so that, on the one hand, people now begin to fight more among themselves, or, better said, even those who worshipped the darkness, turn more and more against each other. This is simply in the principle of the worship of darkness. In the end, only the individual is fed from these sources. Each one is elevated, each one is degraded, according to how it pleases - or became - according to how useful one or another "human being" is for the nourishment, for the nourishment of the dark entities. Perhaps you have felt that something has changed, that sometimes quite surprisingly there is a certain lightness in your heart, and then it slides down again because the next dark wave is launched.

Beloved children in the light. At the moment, it is indeed the case that whatever darkness is still there is trying to spread as much darkness as possible, as much fear and terror as possible, just to survive a little longer. You know that the darkness feeds on your fears, on your anxieties, on your value judgments, on your evaluations, on your pain, on your despair.

Since the authorities, the leaders, what you very falsely call "elites," are dependent upon this, it is so that when they bumble along leaderless or leadershipless, they naturally end up turning against each other, because what is nurtured on the dark side is the single combatant, is the individual, it is the one personality that is elevated or degraded. The tools of darkness are always discord, are always division, are always separation, are always fear and anxiety. Of course, money is also used to lure or has been used to lure to an immense extent, but nonetheless, the thing that is the most damaging to darkness is the incipient communion between people, the recollection. Again, there are the individuals, of course, but the community that doesn't let anyone just perish, the community that puts itself before the poor, the weak, the children to protect, the community that lives honor, dignity, sovereignty, bravery, courage. The community that has grown like a very large, old, strong oak tree with the individual branches on it. The source ultimately that feeds the communities worldwide is and remains love. The love from person to person, the love for Divinity, the love in families, the love for nature, for animals, for fellow human beings. Humanity is something that is lived in community. The time of the lone fighter is over.

Again and again we are asked how long it will take. And even though we have already answered this several times, we would like to address it once again, once again because of the fact that the despair is increasing so drastically. The despair, the doubts, mean nothing else than not yet having found one's own way to God-connectedness.

Beloved children in the light. When the community of mankind, of humanity, stands up and says "No!", who else can do anything? No one! When sovereignty is lived in the individual, who can restrict? No one!

Beloved children in the light. Stop seeing yourselves as victims. Be sovereign people. Act sovereignly without hatred and anger for the opposite, for the authorities. Without this deep contempt, because that is again only the invitation for the darkness.

Beloved children. Each person has his own individual path. Every human being goes his own way. Each person needs a different amount of pressure to perhaps become more awake. Only it is not that we create this pressure, you manifest.

It takes so long because you have no goal whatsoever of how the world could be. Not yet any idea, not even real wishes, how the world could be in the most ideal case. And on the other hand, there are already large communities that have joined together to launch joint projects, that have set individual paths, that go alternative ways. Actually, not the "alternative" ways, but the ways of the laws of nature, the ways of the communities of nature.

It is really a matter of the virtue of being human taking hold again. The new time will not be that you lie in the garden and everything is carried to your feet. The new time is waiting for pioneers to create the new time. Sometimes it is easier to do this in a community. It is important that you no longer see yourselves as just the single finger on the hand, but that you understand that humanity is made up of many fingers and that these are all brothers and sisters of yours and that ultimately only what you actually feel inside can inspire you. But what you feel, you still do not find in your head. But it's not useful to go permanently into the future, "Oh God, how bad is this going to be?" or into the past, "Oh God, how bad was it there!" The point is to embrace the here and now. Here and now, while you are listening to this message, you are sitting in the warm, dry, maybe there is a cool breeze around you, maybe you have a cool drink, maybe you are listening to it with someone you love together, maybe you are feeling the connection and the love that we are sending you, maybe you are completely awake and in your body in this moment. Maybe now in this moment you feel the immense love that we are constantly sending you, maybe you feel the connection. And the saying "It is more blessed to give than to receive" does not mean that you are not allowed to give yourself anything or that you are not allowed to take care of yourself, it only means that experience has shown that most people have much more friends in giving than in receiving something themselves.

Beloved children in the light, it is now about connecting communities, connecting in general, no longer perceiving yourself as a lone wolf. It is about reaching out to the other, to the neighbor, regardless of what vaccination status one or the other may or may not have. It is about entering a golden time together. And this golden time must be created, of course.

What many of you do - even the awakened ones - is to sit and wait for what is presented to you on the outside. But it's about moving forward with commitment, moving forward. To act out plans, projects that you have had in your head for years. It takes so long because so many have not yet woken up. Even those who are supposedly awake are waiting for someone else to do something for them. It's about commitment, it's about standing up for yourself and for others. It's about putting yourself before the helpless and the weak, and especially before children. It is about not interfering out of noble pride or saying nothing when injustice happens, but it is about restoring the dignity of people at all levels - which should be inviolable. However, it is not only about the dignity of people, but it is also about the dignity of children. It is about the dignity of animals, it is about respecting other beings in general and it is about helping others as well. If you permanently see that your neighbors don't treat each other well, it's not encroaching to say, "I would change something," but perhaps it would be reaching out to establish a different form of community. Ultimately, you chose the neighbors that are around you. Ultimately, you attract the people who are in your life. Ultimately, everyone has a gift for you. One to learn and the other to become happier.

Beloved child. Every soul has the Divine Spark attached to it, or rather, in every soul there is the Divine Spark and it wants to go out! Ask yourself: "What would God do in your place?" or "What would Jesus do?" or another Ascended Master. What would an Ascended Master do when he comes to it, when there is a dispute? What would he do if he came to it when there is injustice? This does not mean that you should become encroaching, and this is a balancing act. Encroachment is still not very useful, but sometimes you have to say, "Stop!" Sometimes you also have to say, "No, not like that!". Sometimes you have to put yourself in front of the weaker ones.

Beloved children in the light. Every trip to the past and every trip to the future, the fear of the Third World War, puts many of you under panic. The worst will be prevented. Be in confidence in the Divine Omnipotence.

Only one or the other will manifest a timeline where humanity is led so close to destroying itself and then becoming awake. It is for each of you to find that one point where you become awake, where you become powerful, where you go into your own strength, into your own power. Each one of you has that point at a different moment. And it's mostly about accepting that every journey, whether it's into the past or into the future - the past that makes you angry or angry, the future that makes you fearful or fearful - that in that moment your whole organism, your whole body is releasing that sensation, the hormones, the proteins and everything that is needed to feel something! But the here and the now, the love, the connection, the certainty of the immortality of the own soul, the strength of being human, being a part of the Divine source, that is what lifts you up, in the here and in the now. What gives you the possibility to change the world. And sometimes it's easier to throw ideas at each other, so to speak, in community, to plan, to create great projects out of it. It is a matter of ultimately using this power and the strength of many together, the connectedness, to give the other a hand.

Beloved children in the light. The timeline that you are using the most at this time is a slightly faster timeline than in the past. Nevertheless, the point is that you do not slip back into the waiting position. And that's why ultimately the big play is being played out in such a way that more and more people are waking up. That more and more people go into their own power, into their own strength. That more and more people get involved, connect, live community. To stop looking at, "What is the most important thing?" In the new world, you will no longer enhance yourself by what car you drive or what cell phone you have or what label your clothes are from. You will value yourself in the future by how much you contribute to the community. How much love you give, how much healing you bring into the world, how much joy, how much enthusiasm, how much strength. The world will return to that, to its origin, as it was once meant to be, before the darkness sat on it and took over the reigns, so to speak. For this it needs mature people. Mündige humans, who say which they would like and which they would not like. And who are ready to stand up for it, to stand up for it and to bring this into the future and also to implement it.

Beloved child in the light. You are truly able to create thousands of miracles.

You are truly capable, when your vibrational frequency is high enough, of sweeping thousands of people away.

You, and you alone, are capable of flooding thousands of people with love.

You are able to make the world a little brighter, a little more radiant, a little more just.

You are able to transform the world.

You are able to bring the Divine Light into the world.

You are able to live power and strength outwardly - sovereignty.

You are able to be a role model.

You are capable of being a protector.

And we don't mean here that it is necessary for each of you to "throw yourself in front of the train", so to speak, for others. No, it's about taking a very clear stand, communicating clearly, being clear in your power, not giving yourself up for others, but reaching out to the other person. Some people will not accept the hand, no matter how many times it is extended. If someone is in quicksand and you reach out your hand and he just tries to explain to you who is to blame for getting him into the quicksand in the first place - that person is so far from sovereignty that he doesn't even want to wake up, because he prefers to continue living in his dream castle and is also not willing to put himself before others.

Beloved children in the light. You are so wonderful. You are so special and so unique - and so powerful in community. Each individual soul is already powerful, but in community you can accomplish things because the Christ consciousness will work among you. Just as Jesus said "When two or more come together in my name, I will be in the midst of you!" - these are ultimately the words of the Divine Source itself! As soon as you unite in love, the Divine Source is present, the Almighty is present. To use this power. The darkness would retreat from it. You would not have to be afraid for the simple reason that the darkness knows that it would be transformed immediately in the light of the Almighty. And that is why there are people who live in their world or live in their bubble independent of other outside influences, who live in their niches and can just enjoy the world without any distress.

Of course, one or the other will now object: "Yes, but energy costs will rise" - "Yes, but you don't know how you'll still be able to feed the family" - "Yes, but it's getting tighter and tighter".

Beloved children. Be creative. It will not come to the extreme. You will get the help beforehand from the luminous forces and they have many different faces to change something in the end. It will not be pushed to the extreme, but to just before or that you can already see the extreme for the simple reason that too many people still have the victim role and do not go into their power and their strength and their power.

Create the happy feelings in the here and now and bathe in the endorphins, the happy hormones and from that manifest what the future means for you, for each and every one of you. There are enough timelines for you to choose from. But ultimately, everything will lead to the Golden Age, regardless of what the individual manifests.

Beloved Child. You are infinitely powerful. You are infinitely strong. Otherwise, You would not have insisted on being here at this time. You are the change that the world needs. You are the light that the world needs. You are the power that is needed to carry others along. You are the one you have always been waiting for. You are that force that will drive change on all levels: In heart, in joy, in love, in gratitude for the highest good of all in perfect happiness.

We bless you in the light of Divine Truth, in the light of Divine Love, in the light of Divine Unity, Now and for all time and so be it!"

(Archangel Chamuel)
