

Transliteration of the Channeling "Fight mode" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on March 28, 2024

“Bless you, beloved children of light. We are the energy you call Chamuel.

Beloved children in the light. The current energies are still very challenging. Each of you is approaching your personal precipice, your personal eye of the needle, each of you are struggling with many issues. Still the bone structures, joints but also the power center like the throat, self-knowledge the nose, what you want to see or not see, what you want to hear or not hear, are the main topic of the current transformation processes.

Beloved children in the light. The intensity is intensifying further and further, truths are coming out, more and more and more strongly. Those who could see have already seen it a long time ago, but in the meantime it is also the others who are finally awakening more and more. Everyone has their own stage of awakening, everyone has their own stage of being awake or keeping awake. That is why we would like to speak to you today on the subject of the fight mode.

First of all, to address current events: Darkness is fighting with everything it has. And this doesn't just mean demonic structures, but also people who live in the darkness or have dedicated themselves to the darkness. It means that productions take place again and again, attacks in every form, small and large - the darkness fights for survival more and more every hour.

The more you are free of fear, the less anything will happen to you in any direction. But it is still worth pointing out that it may not be a good idea to go to big events at the moment.

Beloved children. New energies are coming in April: the great solar eclipse, new structures that the Earth is about to release, or will release, due to a phase, a completion of a certain healing process - there are still some to go - but these phases are now being heralded more strongly and more intensely. Of course, this also means that the energies coming from the earth are stronger, more eminent, more powerful and, for some people, more intense.

Remember: If you are connected to the Divine Source via your heart, via your soul, via your Higher Self and simply allow this energy to flow freely into the earth, you can help, support and can perceive the energy that comes from the earth itself more strongly and more consciously and also process it more easily.

Today we have chosen the topic of "fight mode" because many of you bounce back and forth between bliss and fight mode. Most of you feel that intensity is increasing, that new things are happening, that truths are coming to light, that certain structures are simply breaking down, that it is easier to see through, that it is easier to perceive.

Your intuition is getting stronger by the minute. Intuition is the language of the soul and, so to speak, the opposite of battle mode, which is the language of the brain.

In the event of an attack, fight mode ultimately means that flight or fight can be chosen. The brain switches into the limbic system, so to speak, into survival mode. This is where things continue to happen in the body: Blood pressure increases, pulse rate increases, breathing rate increases, adrenaline, noradrenaline is released, the body prepares for fight or flight - a lot of energy is needed for both.

Beloved children. You should not give the power to politicians who can put you into fight mode, which of course also over-acidifies the body, and we point out once again, in order to protect our channel, that in case of long-term problems you should consult a doctor or alternative practitioner.

Beloved children. The body has to deal with many different stimuli - not to mention the psyche, the past and the awakening process and all that. You need your time. You need the time of slow awakening in order to keep up physically. What you call the "old matrix" is crumbling and instead of being in fight mode it would make more sense to follow the heart energy.

We say this with a smile due to the fact that we sound like a broken record, but the point is: every drop wears away the stone. And we would like to point out to you that it is of great importance that you start to let your heart energy flow more freely.

Once in a discourse, in a "better, worse, different" dispute, where one or the other thinks they should be more right, they should be faster, they should have more wisdom: simply go into love. Pay attention to your heart chakra and you will realize how much your soul takes over immediately! You will feel relief, you will feel freedom, you will feel confidence, you will feel love - you will feel the presence of the ALMIGHTY. This is only possible through the soul.

The head fights. About the injustices, about what is happening in the world, about the cruelty, about the agonizing things that are becoming more and more public. These things have been happening for a very, very long time. The manipulation, the fighting, the wars, all of this has been going on for a long, long time - orchestrated by the darkness, of course, to keep people small, poor and struggling.

Nothing is more frightening for the darkness than the light of love, because light and love are ultimately one. The greater the love, the higher the vibration. The higher the vibration, the more light.

The thing that concerns you most at the moment is: When will it be over?

Beloved children. Many awakened souls in the background are already working on the new, because the souls in the connection are always practicing and living the beautiful, the new, the truthful, the oneness, and thereby building the new. Today we simply want to invite you to switch off the fight mode and help to build more, more beautiful and better.

The actual being that works within you, gigantic in size and power structure, that which dwells within you, that which you can channel - each of you, not just a medium, not just a clairvoyant - every human being, every ensouled being can carry the power of love into the world.

You think you have understood so much and yet your perception is simply a form of limitation because of the limitation of what the eyes can perceive, what they can send to the brain in terms of images. To amuse you a little with statistics, it should be mentioned here again that the eyes send approx. 20,000 images per second to the brain, the brain, which is currently still the greatest computing power there is in this reality, can only process 8 images! This means that you have a book with 20,000 words and you only understand 8 of them. This is always a form of limitation. Any form of limitation automatically brings you closer to fight mode, because you are trying to overcome this limitation, which will never be possible for you purely from your head.

Your intuition, meaning your soul, can take in 3-4 billion impressions in one second, evaluate them and react accordingly. This is definitely more than all the computers in the entire universe.

Beloved children in the light. As you allow yourselves more and more, or as you allow the soul more power, more space, it will automatically bring you out of the fight mode, which is a form of limitation and which is wanted by the darkness, and will bring you into connection with Divine Omnipotence itself.

You will be able to perceive it more and you will not manifest what you believe out of anger in fight mode and send out as a frequency, but you will act from the heart, from the soul. The soul knows what is important - the soul knows what is necessary. Karma is not just something that happens in other lives, karma is something that can happen immediately: a smile that goes around the world, a kind word that sweetens the day.

Beloved children. You have come so far. You have been so brave. You have never given up. You never give up. And like in every beautiful book, the happy ending comes at the end. And there is a happy ending! The powerful energy - which has long been unstoppable - of Divine Omnipotence itself is intervening bit by bit.

Some dark rituals can still be performed due to the vibrational frequency of the people around there. But you know that when two or more stand together in his name, he is in your midst.

Beloved children. Now is the time of change. Be prepared, but not in fear. Fear is the absence of love. Connect with the people who love. Connect with the people who do good. And also say "No!" to people who are not good for you. Now is the time to gather strength and power and to pause a little, especially in the upcoming Easter period, to celebrate being together with loved ones, to dwell in love, in connection, in pure being.

Beloved child. If you were not so fearless, so strong, so courageous and so loving, you would not be here right now! You have chosen to transform the world. You have chosen to bring light into the darkness. Even if the darkness is frightening, you are and remain the light. This power and this energy grows stronger in you with each passing day, if you allow it to, or rather, if you give your soul space.

What we see in you is so powerful and so great and so full of dignity and bravery that it can actually shake the world and for those of you who are already building the new through the power of love: the change is already in full swing! It just needs to be shown, it just needs to be presented.

So decide to put the fight mode aside! Fighting is darkness, being is light.

You are so infinitely loved and we thank each of you who are willing to keep going and not give up. You are great - you are loved - and you are truly blessed.

May the Light of Divine Omnipotence fill every cell of your being in the blessing and love of the Creator Himself and so be it!"

(Archangel Chamuel)
