

Transliteration of the Channeling "Interference" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on November 23, 2023

"Bless you, beloved children of light. We are the energy you call Chamuel.

Beloved children in the light. First of all, we will look at current events before we go into our actual topic, which today will be about "interference".

Beloved children in the light. As before, now that the Earth is free and in the healing phase, but increasing in power and also in energy every day, it also means for you, of course, that your entire body structure is being re-energized from below and from above, if you will. This is of great importance because it is actually connected with major, major transformation processes within your very being.

The soul will increasingly turn to you, you will feel more and more that you want or need to withdraw, you need rest, you need your time and you need strength, power and energy in your body. Make sure that you take enough vitamins, that you drink enough and that you do all the good things that are really intended for you.

The best thing to do, of course, is to take a shower or a bath in the forest from time to time. Regardless of whether you are resting at the moment or not, that is where the energies are strongest and most powerful. And it can help you to rest within yourself on the one hand and to escape the hectic pace of everyday life on the other, but above all to ionize or charge your body with energy.

Beloved children in the light. We speak to you today on the subject of interference. As we mentioned at the beginning, the Earth is now free. There are still a few small skirmishes in the truest sense of the word - we are talking about the skirmishes that the darkness is having with the Earth, not the humans or the darkness is having with humanity - and these skirmishes are being counteracted more or less massively. The earth intervenes. It is also intervening in the ascension process because nothing will ultimately stop the earth itself from living through this process together with you.

As we keep saying, the light has already won. We know that many of you cannot feel it, cannot grasp it, cannot touch it, but if you take an honest look at your lives: Despite the fact that you are now literally living in the apocalypse, in Armageddon, in the end times - which, however, end with a "happy ending", we can assure you that this is indeed the case - it nonetheless means that you are doing well. There are no bombs flying around your ears and it is important not to watch or listen to everything, be it on the television programs or on other channels or other sources of information.

Focusing on what you want is still the most important thing, the most essential thing, staying centered, staying in the middle.

Why are we talking about "interference" today? Interference is important because we want to remind you once again how powerful each one of you is. This power that you possess, because the Divine Spark is at work within you, has a great impact on your environment, has a great impact on your being and has a great impact on the Earth as such.

The Earth herself, who as said is in her own transformation processes, will be helpful wherever it is necessary and wherever she can intervene. Where it does not clash with the free will of humanity or where it does not go against the Creator Himself, because ultimately HE has the last word.

Once again, because we are repeatedly asked "Why does God allow certain things?". It is not God who allows something, it is God who has given you free will, the Creator, omnipotence, whatever you want to call HIM.

Free will means making the decision. Free will can only be "free" if all things are known. And so much is being kept from you, so much has been kept from you and so much is still being kept from most people. It is literally an indoctrination, a programming, whatever you want to call it, that you live in a certain "bubble" and do everything that constitutes being a "good person". "Not being against the weak, the hurting, the poor, but having compassion, having empathy, sacrificing yourself for others.

God would not ask this of any soul for the simple reason that when the soul sacrifices itself for another soul - and we are talking here of other souls who are not your children or your loved ones, but simply to sacrifice itself without giving the other the opportunity to go into its own power, it is a sacrifice that is completely pointless and is only advocated and fueled by the darkness and can only be used by the darkness.

To do something out of love, out of pure love like a mother putting herself in front of her child, a father risking his life to save his own child or his family, his wife or whoever, it does mean that if it is done out of love, it has a completely different significance. But what we mean here is ultimately that man as such should renounce everything, should sacrifice himself in order to let others, who themselves have an aversion to him, into his house. This is madness, this is a plan and it has nothing to do with humanity. Respect, decency, honor is something that should be done by mutual agreement in interpersonal relationships regardless of what religion, race or other things should or should not play a role. This is completely irrelevant.

Before GOD, every soul is equal. And this is indeed the case. Completely independent of any skin color, race, religion or whatever.

In order to explain to you what is necessary or what is helpful, what you can do, we would like to talk about the topic of interference this time. Interference: there is constructive interference and destructive interference. Constructive interference is when several people are together in the same energy. Imagine wave troughs that are absolutely the same size, i.e. the amplitude is absolutely the same, the frequency is absolutely the same and they move towards each other together, so to speak. This means that they increase in size, that they absorb each other's vibration and that they stabilize and actually become larger. This would be, in this case, constructive interference.

What we or you ultimately need or require is destructive interference. Why?

Beloved children. Everything you emit is vibration, is frequency, is vibration, where there are differences between vibration and oscillation, but ultimately we are looking at the frequency that exists throughout the universe. Every object vibrates in its own sound. You may have heard of people putting some form of microphone on leaves or on trees and finding that there is a vibration of its own, a sound of its own, a melody of its own being emitted.

Very sensitive people can also tell when their flowers need water or when something is in need and ultimately react accordingly. These are the frequencies that every being that is ensouled - and trees too, although they are not ensouled as a trunk as such, they belong to a collective, and this collective is naturally ensouled. This means that if the trees are all in one vibration, in one frequency, they emit exactly the same wave troughs. And as a result, their energy becomes greater and greater. And if this energy now meets, let's say, another piece of forest that vibrates absolutely at the same energy frequency, then these energies would mix with each other and strengthen each other. This is what is meant when Jesus said "If two or more come together in my name, I will be in your midst." This means that anyone who wants to carry the intention, in the case of Christianity, into the world immediately receives the support of the entire spiritual world. And we are not committing ourselves to any religion here, this was just an example, because ultimately religions are only there to limit you. Spirituality is free, God-knowledge is free, it is something that takes place in each individual heart and that ultimately comes out in your own power, in your own strength, in your own exchange with the omnipotence, with the Divine Source Himself.

Now the darkness also has a frequency. This frequency is very destructive in the truest sense of the word. Over the centuries, the darkness has also managed to build certain forms of energy weapons or weapons systems in any form at all, but they are also able to manipulate the weather, manipulate the earth, emit frequencies through energy weapons alone - you know, the topic of 5G is a big topic as it is extremely, massively noticeable for many of you, all the frequencies that are not of natural origin, that work against you, that limit you, that make you uncomfortable, that can make you ill - and of course all this also has an effect.

If two interferences, i.e. two energies of different frequencies, drift towards each other, two waves of different amplitude and frequency roll towards each other and one has a different oscillation frequency, then it's a bit like a tug of war. Does the bright light win or does the dark win? Then of course, so as not to make the whole thing too physical, it's about strength - how big is one wave, how strong is the other, how much energy does one have, how much energy does the other have - and ultimately the energy that comes from the divine side is always stronger because it can be nourished permanently and infinitely.

Darkness is dependent on stolen, corrupted energy, which it can and must steal again and again, and does not really have its own source in the classical sense - like the Divine Source.

This means that the light, the powerful, the human is ALWAYS stronger than the darkness! What you send out is always stronger than what the darkness can send out, because it is only corrupted by what has been stolen from you.

They believed they could get away with it. They have believed when they tell you TV stories, movies, when they tell you everything, that they can bypass karma, along the lines of "We've shown you everything!". But what is really forgotten is the intention behind it. Karma has something to do with intention. And karma also has its own frequency and its own vibration and therefore its own interference.

Truly, we say to you: A human being, if completely aware of his being, completely surrendered to the Divine Source, would be able to dissolve the darkness for the entire world within seconds!

This is your power!

This is your strength!

This is your Force!

This is the Divine Spark when it can be absolutely accepted or felt or lived.

A single soul would be able to do this!

That's why they have to keep you in fear, they have to keep you in worry, they have to keep you in employment, in the struggle for survival, for finances, for food, for healing power, for all sorts of things, to ultimately achieve just that: to harvest your energy - the corrupted energy, because fear contains no love, that is then the food that is digestible for the darkness - that is the only way they can exist at all. And the fear on their side is much greater than your fear. The fear of disappearing, of being dissolved, of being transformed, of no longer existing. That's why they try to control everything. Where there is love, you don't need control. Where there is fear, you have to control everything to be on the "safe side". That's why all the plans are knitted the way they are.

Now if the darkness is practically like a rope - to take up the example with the tug of war again - if the darkness, due to its interference, always pulls in one direction and the light pulls in another direction, it means that the interference that vibrates higher or vibrates more strongly or contains more love can ultimately dissolve the other. In other words, if these waves were to collide with each other, they could ultimately balance each other out. This is called a "destructive" interference, but in this case it is the right term, it is about destruction, it is about clearing away the darkness, clearing up, illuminating, transforming. And the moment you start to consciously send out these energies, by taking the time and really and truly just letting love flow freely, without limitation - love is and remains the highest vibration of the universe and of course also the strongest frequency - it means that you can dissolve all the dark forces, all the dark energy structures - corrupted energy structures. Nevertheless, it is about living through this, experiencing it and actually implementing it in your everyday life.

Why are we addressing this? As you have noticed, the darkness is still planning an all-out war. This is the only way they can exist, the only way they can survive. Only then... if a great many people around the world were to die. Neither the earth nor God will allow this. In the meantime, the divine power is intervening. The Earth is also intervening, but the problem is still that the beings, or in some cases even people, who are traveling on behalf of the darkness are trying to cause catastrophes with energy weapons, so to speak.

What they don't succeed in doing through war, they should succeed in doing in this way. These too are only frequencies, these too are only vibrations, these too would only be interference.

And whoever has time, desire and leisure, take a little time during meditation and send all the energy of love that you can radiate through the whole world, through the whole continents.

You can actually dissolve the interference, the actual physical interference from energy weapons, from any other destructive energies or from any problematic things. You can bring them into a different vibrational frequency with the good energy.

What is actually planned, even for this year, is nothing nice. We are intervening at the request and command of the Almighty, because the darkness has overstepped the mark. And above all, because GOD can allow a different form of free will due to the fact that there are now more souls who are turning to HIM, namely free will that is created from the conscious heart-soul energy and not just the unconscious free will that is produced from the little bit of mind where you think you know what is right or what is wrong.

And there will be so many people waking up in the next few months and it will be very traumatic for these people because they can't understand that they have slept so much and slept so long and not woken up. Of course, there will also be souls who don't wake up.

This brings us to the subject of the timelines that separate, the different earth dimensions, so to speak. It happens to many of you, for example, that you hear the doorbell and go to the door and don't see anyone at the door and do the same thing two or three times and the fourth time you realize that someone is standing there. These are also interferences. Interference from different timelines. If you are in a different vibrational frequency, you automatically choose a different dimension, i.e. a different timeline. And in this timeline you may often miss a car - you know it wasn't there and suddenly it's there.

The positive thing is that if you stay in your instinct, in your intuition, you will be able to sense it beforehand, you will be able to react beforehand. But in this coming time it is very, very important to be strong and well connected!

So many truths will come to light and we are no longer talking about years or whatever, but we are talking about months at most, which will literally shake the world and maybe also the one or other awakened person. Be prepared. And the strongest and best preparation is and remains the heart.

Why have we told you all this today?

Because you are powerful!

Because you are the divine, ensouled being that was ultimately sent here to accompany this transformation process, to help initiate it and to bring change into the world.

You were born because you chose to transform a place of darkness into pure light. It is not that you have to learn something. It's not that you need to read anything. It's simply that you are allowed to remember.

Practice makes perfect. And ultimately, you are an ensouled being made up of light and love. When you switch off your head, light and love take over your being. It is only important to create these short interruptions again and again and again and again until it also builds up like a bigger and bigger and bigger and bigger wave of love due to the positive interference and is sent out into the world.

Ultimately, YOU are the reason why the ascension process will be successful in any case. Because your love, your soul energy, your heart, your power, your strength and your iron will not to give up is ultimately exactly what is needed to guide, endure, initiate and also carry out this process in connection with the Divine Source.

In the moment you keep reminding yourself that you are a beloved child of Divine Source and the worst thing that could happen - which may be terribly bad for the mind, but for the soul itself is just a homecoming - would be the transition to the other side, the "dying" as you call it. But in the end, for a soul, it's just a beautiful homecoming.

But ultimately it's not about you leaving the planet, quite the opposite. You are here to discover your immortality and, if you wish, to live it. You are here to bring the frequencies into another realm. In this strength, in this intensity, in this dimension, you shall truly work miracles.

Beloved child of light. Who else but you could do this?

Who else but you would have so much power?

Who else but you can feel so much love?

Each of you is capable of channeling this love. Start now!

You are protected.

You are loved.

And you have the power to avert the worst.

And you have the strength to do so.

And we invite you to do it!

Ultimately, the higher the vibration of the place where you are, the greater the protection it enjoys.

The darkness no longer succeeds in many things, even if it tries. But it is simply the case that its interference is always being slowed down, blocked or transformed.

It has already begun, but you can increase this even further!

Never forget, you are the love of GOD.

You are the LOVE OF GOD! In the truest sense of the word.

You are loved, you are protected. You are never alone, we are always by your side.

We bless you in the light of Divine omnipotence, now and always, and so be it!"

(Archangel Chamuel)
