

Transliteration of the Channeling "Upheaval" of Archangel Chamuel by Heike Lieselotte Schneider on January 30, 2022

"Be blessed you beloved children of light. We are the energy you call Chamuel.

Beloved children in the light. Before we come to our actual channeling today, which will be about the theme of upheaval, we would like to point out to you what is currently taking place on the body structure.

Beloved children in the light. "Upheaval" means upheaval on all levels, including of course on the physical level, but especially on the spiritual dimensions. You will increasingly feel the call to be at rest. You will increasingly feel the call to go into nature. Now it is somewhat up to you to begin to answer this call and not to think "the household still needs to be done" or "the basement still needs to be cleaned out" before you can answer this call.

Beloved children in the light. Eventually, as we have mentioned in some of the channelings, no stone will be left unturned, and this is especially true, of course, of your physical structures. The more you take the time to rest, the more you allow yourself the time to meditate or to go to nature, the easier and simpler this transition will be for you, but here too free will applies.

Ultimately, there is no body part or body organ at the moment that is not truly in transformation. In particular, we would like to point out that the neck is a big issue because it is the center of power and for many of you the third eye and the crown chakra, the head, is also very much in transition. It means that abilities are being reactivated. With each passing day, the limitations that have been imposed on the earth, or rather, that the earth has allowed to be imposed on it or that the people on the earth have allowed to be imposed on it, are becoming lighter and freer.

This means that all crystalline structures, which until now have had a limitation in any form, be it on chakra or subchakra level, be it on any brain region areas, are gradually being lifted.

This removal means, of course, that you begin to go more and more into your strength, into your power, and, if you allow it and give up the subject of fear of "too much ability" or of "too much power", you will be able to continue to live or to live again or to reawaken very many psychokinetic abilities.

Beloved children in the light. Upheaval: You feel it in every one of your cells. You feel it in your auric field. You feel it on the earth. This upheaval means that of course it is also a "rupture". The rupture of the old system, the "breaking off" of the old system. The breaking off of the dark structures. The upheaval, the transformation of everything you have known so far, at least in this incarnation.

Beloved children in the light. Rebuilding can only be done once everything has been destroyed. What cannot be transformed must be destroyed, must be torn down, in order to let something new arise. You are in this process. And even though we know how exhausting and how difficult this is for you, we want you to know the following:

Beloved child in the light. You are chosen to build this new time!

You are chosen to go into your power, into your strength!

You are chosen to transform the world!

You are chosen to heal the world!

You are chosen because you have chosen, in consultation with all your Spiritual Guides, to have this special experience! And the choice was whether you are strong enough. So, ask yourself, with all that is happening to you on the outside, are you strong enough? The answer is: Yes! Otherwise, you would not be chosen. All that is taking place now is exactly what was ultimately chosen by you and confirmed by the Highest Source Itself.

You have made this decision, you have this power, this might, this strength.

You are so infinitely loved and thereby so infinitely protected.

You are chosen. You are awake! And this wakefulness is something that is a huge gift, which you have chosen and you have also accepted.

This gift was given to you, but you had the courage and humility to accept it!

You are so powerful! You are so full of energy! Your soul is so much bigger than anything you can imagine! One soul alone could bring about the change immediately. One soul would be able to bring change into the world on a scale that you cannot even imagine.

Beloved child in the light.

Maintain the contact with your soul! Let go of the thought structures!

Begin to channel the freedom and light of God through you!

You know that our energy stands for the "love of God". Of course it has a meaning that we speak so often of "love". Love is and remains the highest vibrational frequency of the entire universe.

Love is exactly what will ultimately liberate the Earth - Divine Love working through you. There is nothing more important to do right now than to bathe in the feeling of love as often as possible, to evoke the feeling of love within you.

Love as you have never loved before!

Love as if the world depended on it!

Love as if the salvation of the world depended on it!

Because that is exactly what it does. Every soul is needed. Because the limitations are still there, albeit lighter, but still there. And these limitations, which were also imposed on you by the darkness, which made up and partly still make up the chains in the slavery, mean that you can now strip them from you. But this happens only through the highest vibration of the universe, the love!

Therefore, we would like to invite you today, instead of picking on the "unawake", the sleeping ones, celebrate your awakesness. Celebrate that you have chosen to walk a different path. Celebrate that you are helping to bring about this change!

This special time will stand out from all the incarnations you have already had. This special time is of such great value to the entire universe. The war that is raging - light against darkness - will be ended by you!

Beloved child in light. Would You be here if we did not all believe in You?

Would you not be here if your soul, your higher self, your existence did not believe that you could accomplish it?

Why do you think you are lowly? It is the reflection of darkness. The reflection of the darkness that is still a little bit in you. This does not mean that you are bad. To be human means to see the darkness, to recognize it, to accept it and then to have the love and the strength not to fight against it, but only to BE. Because "fight" means nothing else than when you pick on yourself again, feel too small again, feel not good enough again.

Consider: In your thought structures the darkness can manipulate. And it does! Be it by the media, be it by demonic factors which come under you again and again or which you also call unconsciously again and again.

If the circumstances are right, you can be excellent in the love. The art and the task and the salvation of the world happens by the fact that you can create love or let it flow through you in the most unfavorable circumstances! To let the love of Divine Power, the love of Omnipotence flow through you when the world is down: that is the reason why you are here. To bring this about!

Beloved children in the Light. Stop waiting! Waiting so that you can be happy when circumstances are different. Create! And you do it. Every day a little more.

Accept that you are much further now than you were two years ago.

Accept that this very birth, even if it takes a long time, was necessary to empower you to step into ownership.

Accept that ultimately everything that has happened so far and everything that will happen in the future will help to awaken even more people, to bring even more people out of their slumber. However, this will only succeed if you also reach out to the sleeping people, or as you also lovingly call them, the "sleeping sheep".

Not to fight against them. Not to evaluate and judge them, because it only feeds the darkness. And each of you who is awake knows that you really still carry these shadows within you.

Beloved children in the light. The willingness to accept it and the willingness to live it is what has already distinguished you. The willingness to do everything for it and not to give up is what puts you into the higher vibrations, so to speak.

Feel the connection with the people who are close to you, who are in the same level of vibration! Of course, the chaff separates from the wheat. There are very many unconscious, absolutely unconscious, but also very many unsouled entities on this planet.

Follow the call of love! Some families have been broken by this phase. Fights have raged. Discussions. Hurts. Pain. So much pain. But healing can only happen by letting go!

Some families are only now being brought together. This means that a soul has decided to incarnate in a family full of the "unconscious" to help bring the light to them. Sometimes it is successful, but often it is not. And that is also all right. This does not mean indifference in the form of "never mind", it just means that all decisions have the same validity. In the end, almost every family has that little rebel with them who reaches out and who may bring salvation.

The most important and the most essential thing in this special time is to turn to the Divine Source itself! It is the Lord who can ultimately change everything. And the more people call for Him and the more people ask for it, the easier it will be to accept this help. The critical mass must be reached. And yet, in spite of everything, this power is permanently flowing through you. The Lord himself has it in his hands!

There will be many upheavals on many different levels. Many things will be threatened to you. Do not believe everything you see in the media. Make yourselves free! Travel inward or into the nature.

We are by your side. The LORD Himself, God the Father, the Omnipotence, is at your side, because you are infinitely loved! You are so powerful, because You were empowered by God! You are so powerful, because you are loved by God Himself with every side, light or dark!

It is not about you becoming perfect. It is about you accepting your completeness and living that completeness!

God, the Father, loves each one of us. He will not give up anyone. We, who are very close to Him, feel the change in every day, and yet the time will not be told. It will take as long as it takes. Until every person has received the offer to change the world, so to speak, and has also understood it! The wake-up call goes out every day to all souls. And every day a little more people accept it than the day before.

God himself has empowered you to contribute to ending slavery! To help save the world! To contribute to heal the world!

The salvation of the whole planet, the salvation of every single soul needs your own special light.

Love!

Forgive!

Let go!

Free yourself!

Accept your power!

Accept your force!

Without manipulating, without belittling others, without looking down on others, without getting angry with others!

Accept this power now. NOW. In this special moment.

And know, God never gives you up. He has placed Us at your side, because YOU ARE the LOVE OF GOD.

We bless you in the light of this ALMIGHTY, now and all time, and so be it."

(Archangel Chamuel)
